

PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT MANUAL

COLLEGE OF CRANIO-SACRAL THERAPY SOUTH AFRICA

("CCSTSA")

1. INTRODUCTION

Your privacy is very important to us and the CCSTSA is committed to protecting your right to privacy as well as your right to access any information that the CCSTSA has on you.

The Access to Information Manual (“Manual”) is prepared in compliance with the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”) and the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”). It is intended to enable requesters to obtain records, to which they are entitled, in a quick, easy and accessible manner and give effect to the constitutional right of access to information Section 32(1)(a) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa of 1996 (hereinafter referred to as ‘the Constitution’) provides that everyone has a right of access to any information held by the state and any information held by another person that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. PAIA gives effect to the right of access to information as provided for in section 32 of the Constitution, subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to, limitations.

PAIA came into operation on 9 March 2001, except for sections 10, 14, 15 and 51, which came into operation on 15 February 2002. The Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (hereinafter referred to as ‘POPIA’) was enacted to give effect to the Constitutional right to privacy and to promote the protection of personal information processed by public and privacy bodies. POPIA was signed into law on 19 November 2013 and was fully enforceable from 1 July 2021.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of the PAIA is to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in both the public and private sectors by affording any person the right of access to information to enable them to exercise and protect all their rights to the full extent required.

Where such a request is made, the CCSTSA is obliged to give access to the requested information, except where the law expressly provides that the information must not be released.

It is important to note that PAIA recognises certain limitations to the right of access to information, which includes:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of the right to privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and

- Effective, efficient, and good governance.

The limitation should be in a manner that balances that right of access to information with any other rights.

The main objective of POPIA is to promote the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies. POPIA amended certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information.

This Manual serves as a guide on how a requester of information may request access to that information (record) held by the CCSTSA. The purpose of this Manual is to set out procedures to be followed and criteria that must be met for anyone (“the requester”) to request access to records in the possession or under the control of the CCSTSA.

This manual is made available for inspection, free of charge, at the physical address of the CCSTSA.

"Employee" refers to any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of the CCSTSA and receives or is entitled to receive any remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting any work or services for the CCSTSA. This includes, without limitation, heads of departments, managers, all permanent, temporary and part-time staff as well as contract workers.

Records are kept in respect of other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, departments, service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records which can be said to belong to the CCSTSA. The following records fall under this category:

4.1. Employee, work or service related records which are held by another party as opposed to being held by the CCSTSA; and

4.2. Records held by the CCSTSA pertaining to other parties, including financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about the contractors/suppliers.

5. Publicly available records

There are no other records which are already publicly available without a request for access in terms of the Act being necessary:

10. STEPS TO CONSIDER BEFORE SUBMITTING A REQUEST

The following steps must be considered before submitting a request:

1. Step 1: Are you requesting your own information?

Data Subjects are allowed access to their own information without having to use the request for access to information procedures as set out in the Promotion of Access to Information Act, including, but not limited to:

- Account information

Data Subjects should contact the IO to request access to their own information. Please note that there may be administration costs associated with retrieval of certain types of information records.

2. Step 2: Are you entitled to use the Act to request access?

Please take note of section 7(1) of the Act which states:

“This Act does not apply to a record of a public body or a private body if:

(a) that record is requested for the purpose of criminal or civil proceedings;

(b) so requested after the commencement of such criminal or civil proceedings, as the case may be; and

(c) the production of or access to that record for the purpose referred to in paragraph (a) is provided for in any other law.”

If section 7(1) applies, you may not bring a request in terms of this Act. You must use the rules and procedures for discovery of information of the relevant legal forum and proceedings you are involved in. The CCSTSA reserves the right to claim all expenses and other damages incurred as a result of a requester submitting a request in contravention of section 7(1).

3. Step 3: Does the information requested exist in the form of a record?

Please note that the Act only applies to records that are in existence at the time when the CCSTSA receives your request. The Act does not compel anyone to create a record which is not yet in existence at the time the request is made. For instance, the Act cannot be used to obtain reasons for a decision taken by the CCSTSA if such reasons are not in the form of a record.

4. Step 4: Is the record in the possession or under the control or custody of the CCSTSA?

The Act provides that the record requested must be in possession or under the control of the CCSTSA. Therefore, even if a record was created by the CCSTSA or at some point in the CCSTSA's possession (but no longer in the CCSTSA's control at the time of your request), you must seek access to the record from the party under whose possession or control it is.

11. ACCESS TO RECORDS AND PROCEDURE RECORDS

Records held by the CCSTSA may be accessed by the Requester only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

1. Who may request information?

Any person who requires information for the exercise or protection of any rights may request information from a private body. Section 50 of PAIA states that a Requester must be given access to any record of a private body if:

- that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights,
- that person complies with the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record, and
- access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4, Part 3 of PAIA.

2. Two types of requesters

Personal Requester

The CCSTSA will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record about the Requester's personal information without the Requester having to pay an access fee. However, the prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

Other Requester

This Requester (other than a Personal Requester) is entitled to request access to information on third party or parties. However, the CCSTSA is not obliged to voluntarily grant access, and such a request may be denied. The Requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of PAIA and POPIA, including the payment of a request and access fee where applicable.

12. HOW TO SUBMIT REQUEST FOR ACCESS

Please consider the steps in paragraph 10 above before submitting your request. Once satisfied that none of the foregoing prohibitions apply to you, you may proceed to submit a request as follows:

1. Request form

The requester will be expected to complete the request form in Annexure 1 to this Manual (the "Request Form"). You can send the completed request form as is or under cover of a separate letterhead.

In the Request Form, you need to provide sufficient information to enable us to adequately identify –

- The record or records requested;
- The identity of the requester,
- Which form of access is required, if the request is granted;
- The postal address or email address of the Requester.

2. Request procedure

2.1. A requester requiring access to information held by the CCSTSA must complete the prescribed Form C, attached hereto as Annexure A.

2.2. Submit the completed form to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, or electronic mail address recorded in paragraph 4 of this manual and pay a request fee and a deposit, where so advised.

2.3. The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to at least enable the Information Officer to identify:

2.3.1. The record or records requested;

- 2.3.2. The identity number of the Requester;
- 2.3.3. The form of access required, if the request is granted;
- 2.3.4. The e-mail or postal address of the Requester.
- 2.4. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- 2.5. The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right to be exercised or protected. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.
- 2.6. The CCSTSA will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods could not be complied with.
- 2.7. The requester will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he must state the manner and the particulars so required.
- 2.8. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally to the Information Officer.
- 2.9. Where applicable, the requester must pay the prescribed fee if applicable, before any further processing can take place.

3. Description of the right

Take care to adequately describe the right which you are seeking to protect or enforce by means of the records requested. Please note that the courts have indicated that access to the records must be “necessary” for the exercise or protection of the right so stated.

It is important to note that the CCSTSA may refuse you access to the records requested if the right is not clearly defined or where the right you claim to seek to exercise or protect does not qualify as a right as contemplated in the Act.

4. Representatives

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of The CCSTSA.

5. Illiteracy or disability

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

13. PRESCRIBED FEES

1. The prescribed fees, where applicable, as provided for in paragraph 13.5 below must be paid and proof of payment (e.g. copy of deposit slip) must be submitted following your request.
2. The requester will be notified where the Information Officer requires a deposit (calculated from the access fee).
3. You must submit proof of payment before your request can be processed.
4. If you qualify for exemption of the payment of any fee, please state the reason for exemption.
5. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:
 - A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
 - An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.
6. The requester, other than a personal requester, must pay the prescribed R50.00 (fifty rand) request fee, following submission of the request and provide a deposit slip as proof of payment which must follow the Request Form.
7. If the search for and preparation of the record (for disclosure), including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, The CCSTSA will request you to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
8. The CCSTSA may withhold a record until the requester has paid the prescribed fee.
9. A requester whose request has been granted must pay the applicable access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
10. You may ask for a refund of the deposit if your request for access is refused.

14. CONSIDERING THE REQUEST

1. The CCSTSA will be deemed to have received your request when all of the requirements in respect of the Act have been met.
2. Subject to the provisions in the Act in respect of extension of time periods, the CCSTSA will process the request within 30 days, unless you have stated special reasons which would satisfy the CCSTSA that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
3. You will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied.

15. DECISION

1. The CCSTSA will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. The Information Officer will take all reasonable steps to find a record that has been requested. If the record cannot be found or does not exist, the Information Officer must notify the Requester by way of affidavit or affirmation that it is not possible to give access to the record. This is deemed to be a refusal of the request. If, however, the record is later found, the Requester must be given access if the request would otherwise have been granted.
2. The 30-day period with which the CCSTSA has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of information records, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the CCSTSA and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. Should an extension be given, the CCSTSA will notify the Requester in writing and will also provide the procedure involved should the Requester wish to apply to court against the extension.
3. If a request is GRANTED:
 - 3.1. The notification must state the applicable access fee required to be paid, together with the procedure to be followed should the Requester wish to apply to court against such fee, and the form in which access will be given.
 - 3.2. If access is granted, access must be given in the form that is reasonably required by the Requester, or if the Requester has not identified a preference, in a form reasonably determined by the Information Officer.
4. If a request is DECLINED:
 - 4.1. The notification must include adequate reasons for the decision, together with the relevant provisions of PAIA relied upon and provide the procedure to be followed should the Requester wish to apply to court against the decision. The Information Officer's failure to respond to the Requester within the 30-day period constitutes a deemed refusal of the request.

4.2. Section 59 of PAIA provides that the Information Officer may redact a record and grant access only to that portion which the law does not prohibit access to.

5. Grounds for Refusal

5.1. The main grounds for the CCSTSA to refuse a request for information relates to the:

5.1.1. Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person

5.1.2. Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:

5.1.2.1. trade secrets of that third party

5.1.2.2. the disclosure of financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party

5.1.2.3. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the CCSTSA, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition

5.1.3. Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement

5.1.4. Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property

5.1.5. Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings

5.1.6. The research information of the CCSTSA or a third party, if its disclosure would place the research at a serious disadvantage

5.1.7. The commercial activities of the CCSTSA, which may include, without limitation:

5.1.7.1. trade secrets of the CCSTSA

5.1.7.2. the disclosure of financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the CCSTSA

5.1.7.3. information which, if disclosed could put the CCSTSA at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition

5.1.7.4. a computer program which is owned by the CCSTSA, and which is protected by copyright

5.2. Requests for information that are clearly not legitimate, trivial, or nuisance, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources must be refused.

5.3. Notwithstanding the above, disclosure is mandatory where it would reveal a contravention of or failure to comply with the law, or imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk and the public.

16. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO REFUSAL OF A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

1. Internal remedies

The CCSTSA does not have internal appeal procedures. For this reason, the decision made by the Information Officer is final, and Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the Requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

2. External remedies

A requester that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief. Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief. For purposes of PAIA and POPIA, the courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status.
